BARBARA S. JONES
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

On March 2, 2012¹, Magistrate Judge Francis issued a Report and Recommendation ("R&R"), recommending a denial of Plaintiff's motion seeking enforcement of a settlement agreement allegedly entered into with the Defendant. In addition, because the agreement cannot be enforced, Magistrate Judge Francis denied Plaintiff's application for an award of attorneys' fees and costs.

Magistrate Judge Francis instructed both parties that failure to file objections within fourteen (14) days of the R&R would result in waiver of objections and preclude appellate review. Neither party filed written objections within that timeframe. Accordingly, both parties waived their objections and appellate review is precluded. See Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S.

¹ The Report and Recommendation was signed on March 2, 2012, but was later modified and entered on the docket on March 5, 2012.

Upon review and consideration of the R&R, the Court finds it is neither "clearly erroneous" nor "contrary to law." See FED. R. CIV. P. 72. The Court, thus, adopts the R&R, and DENIES, Plaintiff's motion to enforce the settlement agreement. No appeal may be taken from this Order.

The Clerk of the Court is directed to terminate the motion (document 17).
